Local Winner of National Student Art Contest To be Honored by Major Beverage Company on Tuesday

Thanks to the maker of the number one specialty syrup in North America, 15-year-old Latia Drayton of the RiverzEdge Arts Project afterschool program of Woonsocket is about to become a nationally-known artist. Beginning this fall, Torani Pomegranate syrup will sport a new, limited-edition art label designed by Drayton, whose art was chosen from hundreds of entries from afterschool students all across the country. To celebrate Drayton's win, Torani will host a Soda Party at her afterschool program.

Torani is highlighting the importance of afterschool programs nationwide by promoting the artwork of children in afterschool programs on limited-edition beverage labels. The company will donate five percent of the sales of the limited edition bottles from September through December 2007 to the Afterschool Alliance. This is the third year Torani has sponsored the Art on Labels project in support of afterschool. Three other winners designed labels for Torani Ginger Spice syrup, Torani "Italian Eggnog" syrup, and Torani Peppermint syrup, in California, Ohio and Texas respectively.
