

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Boys & Girls Club of the Tennessee Valley	Knoxville	Ms. Michelle Davis	2002	$225,000	The implementation of the 21st Century Grant has enabled us to establish Project Learn in two club sites located in the empowerment zone. The eight schools located within this zone were listed as targeted schools.
Boys & Girls Club TN Alliance	Knoxville	Lorene Jackson	2003	$500,000	The Boys and Girls Clubs in Tennessee formed the Tennessee Alliance to better coordinate activities for youth across the State of Tennessee. The Boys and Girls Clubs Tennessee Alliance Project Learn program covered eight targeted areas.
Boys & Girls Clubs of the Tennessee Valley	Knoxville	Kelly Drummond	2004	$150,000	The implementation of the 21st Century Grant has enabled us to establish Project Learn in two club sites located in the empowerment zone and one elementary school. The eight schools were listed as targeted schools.
Boys & Girls Clubs, Tennessee Alliance	Knoxville	Lorene Jackson	2004	$110,000	The Boys and Girls Clubs in Tennessee formed the Tennessee Alliance to better coordinate activities for youth across the State of Tennessee. The Boys and Girls Clubs Tennessee Alliance Project Learn program covered two targeted areas.
Bradley County Schools	Cleveland	Janet Blair	2004	$200,000	The project serves 100 at risk students grades K-5 and operates each school day Monday-Thursday from 3:00-6:00 at the Sonshine Avenue futuristic & thematic Ministry Center.
Cannon County REACH Program	Woodbury	Angela King	2004	$150,000	An after-school enrichment program for children ages 5-12 that attend the grammar schools in Cannon County. The basic components are math, reading, nutrition and food, enrichment activities, parent skills and mentoring.
Carter County Schools	Elizabethton	Sonya Miller	2004	$600,000	Carter County Schools has seven elementary schools participating in the program. All sites are now operational, with the last coming aboard on Dec. 6, 2004.
Claiborne County Schools	Tazewell	Ms Joy Collingsworth	2002	$250,000	The Claiborne County 21st Century Community Learning Centers respond to the needs of our community by providing services through an extended school day and extended school year.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Claiborne County Schools	Clairfield	Linda Keck	2003	$100,000	The schools are using this grant to help improve test scores. Powell Valley has used an after-school program to help students improve their work. Math scores have improved much, and we are adding new programs to address the reading problems.
Claiborne County Schools	Harrogate	Sheliah Cosby	2004	$100,000	Our project enables to target student's at-risk for failure or falling behind and spend time and resources tutoring them. We are able to be in closer contact with the parents of these children as they come to pick them up on a daily basis.
Clarksville-Montgomery County Schools	Clarksville	Dr. Kimmie Sucharski	2002	$400,000	A consortium of six sites within the Clarksville-Montgomery community was developed. The six sites are situated in a variety of areas to include inner city, urban, suburban and rural.
Clarksville-Montgomery County Schools	Clarksville	Kimi Sucharski	2004	$250,000	At-Risk remediation, intervention and enrichment after school and summer programs.
Cleveland City Schools	Cleveland	Tamara Humphres	2004	$150,000	CLC provides a safe, learning, and fun environment for students of Cleveland City Schools. There are four schools involved in this project. Certified teachers provide academic instruction.
Clinch-Powell Educational Cooperative	Tazewell	Leshia Cope	2004	$200,000	The Hancock Education, Arts, and Recreation Time for Students is offered to K-8 students in the Hancock County School System. The program is offered every Monday-Thursday from 3:00 till 5:45.
Cocke County Schools	Newport	Jaime Watts	2004	$75,000	The project, located at Northwest Elementary school and the local Boys and Girls Club, includes after-school tutoring services, character education activities, and computer lab training for 3rd - 6th grade students.
Cumberland County Schools	Crossville	Ms. Rickie Harris	2002	$300,000	Our sites provide before school, after school, and/or summer school activities. These activities are academic and enrichment. Students that participate have improved their academic skills and enjoy the varied enrichment activities.
Cumberland County Schools	Crossville	Rickie Harris	2004	$50,000	We are providing before school, after school and a summer program that encompasses academics and enrichment activities for K-8. Adult Ed. classes are also provided.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Decatur County Schools	Decaturville	Janet Conrad	2004	$150,000	The project will offer a wide range of high quality educational, developmental, artistic/musical, and recreational services to children and adults with the greatest need for expanded learning opportunities.
Douglas-Cherokee Economic Authority	Morristown	Cathy Kitts or Steph	2003	$200,000	Douglas-Cherokee's 21st CCLC program consists of four primary sites serving students enrolled in Luttrell and Maynardville Elementary Schools in Union County, and Joppa and Washburn Elementary Schools in Grainger County.
Douglas Cherokee Economic Authority	Morristown	Cathy W. Kitts or St	2004	$200,000	The project consists of four primary sites serving students enrolled in Fairview Marguerite, Hillcrest, Lincoln Heights, and West Elementary Schools in Hamblen County.
Douglas Cherokee Economic Authority 7/04	Morristown	Cathy W. Kitts or St	2004	$100,000	The project consists of two primary sites serving students enrolled in Horace Maynard Middle School in Union County, and Cosby High School in Cocke County.
Dyer County Schools	Dyersburg	Kaye Bane	2004	$150,000	The Dyer County School System will operate three 21st Century Community Learning Centers to be located at Fifth Consolidated Elementary, Trimble Elementary, and Three Oaks Middle School.
Emerald Youth Foundation	Knoxville	Ms. Shara Shoup	2003	$150,000	Emerald Youth Foundation in conjunction with the Boys & Girls Club - Moses Teen Center and Fulton High School have established 2 21st CCLC sites to help address the socio-economic and education-related problems that face the inner city in Knoxville, TN.
Emerald Youth Foundation	Knoxville	Shara Shoup	2004	$50,000	Emerald Youth Foundation and the Wesley House Community Center have established 2 21st CCLC sites to address the socio-economic and education-related problems that face one inner city community in Knoxville, TN.
Family Affair Ministries, Inc.	Nashville	Vera Williams-Davis	2004	$55,000	The Learning Zone after school program implements activities and services in a safe drug-free environment that enhances childrens reading ability, teaches children to behave well in the classroom, to take directional cues, to love learning.
Fayette County Shoos	Somerville	Mr. James Teague	2002	$500,000	The project seeks to provide academic, social, phsical and emotional skills, while giving students a chance to develop other intersets and hobbies.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Franklin County Schools	Winchester	Tammy Grizzard	2004	$85,000	After school program for at risk 7th and 8th grade students. Transported from middle schools to center for tutoring, recreation and enrichment activities. We also serve nutritious snacks and provide educational field trips.
Franklin Special School District	Franklin	Sandy Hime	2004	$140,000	The main descriptor of our project is that it allows disadvantaged children (around 100 so far) to attend the school district's after-school program called MAC (Morning and Afternoon Care) and thus have the opportunities that other children have everyday.
Greeneville City Schools	Greeneville	Ron Fields	2004	$90,000	The two chief components that our program addresses are Tutoring/Remediation and Enrichment. No significant or substantial changes have been made nor barriers encountered at the present time.
Hamilton County Schools	Chattanooga	Ms. Anne McGintis	2002	$350,000
Hamilton County Schools	Chattanooga	Ms. Anne McGintis	2003	$150,000	Lights On! In The Middle centers will offer program activities after school, on weekends and in the summer. We will offer home work assistance and general tutoring, fundamental math, science, and reading programs; health education and physical exercise.
Hamilton County Schools	Chattanooga	Anne McGintis	2004	$100,000	Lights On! Connections centers will offer program activities after school, on weekends and in the summers. We anticipate serving 1,000 students.
Humphreys County Schools	Waverly	Michael Mott	2004	$150,000	Humphreys County is providing a before and after school program at four Title I eligible schools. Included in the program are classes for homework help, music, art, drama and Spanish.
Jefferson County Schools	Dandridge	Sherry Finchum	2004	$225,000	Project REACH involves 3 unique programs. The components are Rush Strong Early Learning Center, Enrichment and Arts at Jefferson county High School, and Camp Read Along.
Johnson City Schools	Johnson City	Ms. Robbie Anderson	2003	$100,000	Our program is a partnership between the JC Housing Authority and the JC School System. We are providing afterschool programs to enhance school attendance and academic success for our families.
Johnson County Schools	Mountain City	Lisa Arnold/Jill Gray	2004	$75,000	We have the after school program Monday thru Thursday from 3:00-5:30 for grades K-6. We have four groups that rotate classes every 30 minutes after a 30 minute snack period. Our classes are Music, Tutoring, Math/Science Lab, and Art.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Keplar Elementary School	Rogersville	Sandra Williams	2004	$50,000	Keplar Elementary School provides after-school activities, including homework help and math tutoring, as well as enrichment activities such as chess club, Boy and Girl Scouts, craft activities, physical education and special activities.
Kingsport City Schools	Kingsport	Mr. Chris Teague	2002	$200,000	ENCORE! serves students in grades 6-8. We provide homework assistance, tutoring and enrichment. ENCORE! also works with the administration and teachers to assist students who are at risk.
Kingsport City Schools	Kingsport	Amanda Arnold	2004	$60,000	The ENCORE! Sr program served the students of Dobyms-Bennett High School with homework help, a credit recovery program tutoring, and a mentoring program. The program began in March of 2005. We are still in the stage of aggressive recruitment of students.
Lauderdale County Schools	Ripley	Mr. Tommy Durham	2002	$230,000	The 21st Century Community Learning Center grant received by the Lauderdale County School System is being used to establish both an early morning program at Halls Junior High School and an after-school program for Ripley Elementary School.
Lauderdale County Schools	Ripley	Tommy Durham	2004	$65,000	The 21st Century Community Learning Center grant received by the Lauderdale County School System is being used to support a formal After-School program at the Lauderdale Middle School (grades 6-7-8). This program has been structured to serve up to 80 students.
Lewis County Schools	Hohenwald	Ms. Pat Couch	2002	$100,000	The Lewis County project has been a great asset to our community. One of the main accomplishments of the Lewis County Project is to prevent latch key children. We believe the Lewis Project has made a great impact on our children's future, and on o
Lincoln County Schools	Fayetteville	Sheley Cowley	2004	$90,000	Project I Can is an out-of-school time program for students at 8th District School. The primary target population is students in grades 3-8 who fall below the 50th percentile in their math or reading Star or TCAP achievement tests.
Loudon County Schools	Loudon	Kathy Proaps	2004	$95,000	Learning Activities Unite Community Hands(LAUNCH) is designed to enhance academics, recreation and positive behavior building skills among children and adults.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Manchester City Schools	Manchester	Cindy Whitham	2004	$75,000	10% of the total population of Westwood Elementary School are Hispanic students. Westwood Community Learning Center will provide additional tutoring for students.
McMinn County Schools	Athens	Sheila Phelps	2004	$90,000	An after-school tutorial and enrichment program has been established this year for students at Englewood School. We will also have a four week summer program for the students.
McNairy County Schools	Selmer	Liz Redmon	2004	$540,000	Our project is underway and in the first quarter of this year we served 1,273 students and 1,198 parents.
Memphis City Schools	Memphis	Rodney Tate	2004	$200,000	Prime Time III is a state funded grant program established to expand the Memphis City Schools District after school intervention activities in 7 selected school locations (6 elementary and 1 middle school).
Memphis City Schools, School Age Care	Memphis	Mr. Rodney Tate	2003	$300,000	Prime Time II is a state funded grant program established to expand the Memphis City Schools District after school intervention activities in 4 selected school locations (3 elementary and 1 middle school).
Memphis City Schools, School Age Care Programs	Memphis	Mr. Rodney Tate	2002	$750,000	Prime Time I is a state funded grant program established to expand the Memphis City Schools District after school intervention activities in 7 selected school locations (6 elementary and 1 middle school).
Metro-Nashville Public Schools	Nashville	Mr. Lynn Morelock	2003	$600,000	Club MCM is designed to support and enrich the regular school-day academic program by providing activities that meet the academic, life skills and recreational needs of students in a safe and caring environment.
Milan Special School District	Milan	Sam Rhodes	2004	$225,000	Our program serves nearly 300 students in grade 1 through 8. We offer homework help/tutoring, reading intervention, math intervention, anger management classes, art, choir, a community mentoring program and a multitude of enrichment opportunities.
Morgan County Schools	Wartburg	Kathy Carroll	2004	$600,000	Morgan County 21st CCLC Project is being conducted at ten locations throughout the county. Students receive snacks, transportation, and supplies along with numerous quality programs before and after school three days per week.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Murfreesboro City Schools	Murfreesboro	Mr. James Vince W	2002	$125,000	Project EAGLE (Elevating Academic Goals 4 Lifelong Excellence) of the Murfreesboro School System will enable students at Mitchell-Neilson Primary and Mitchell-Neilson Elementary School to aoar to the height of academic success.
Murfreesboro City Schools	Murfreesboro	Mr. James Vince W	2003	$175,000	The ATLAS Project will provide a safe, supervised, and drug-free community learning centers in three elementary schools, which will help students meet or exceed state and local standards in core subject areas.
Murfreesboro City Schools	Murfreesboro	Peggy Seneker	2004	$120,000	Project TRITON serves students in three afterschool programs by providing a safe, supervised, and drug-free environment for all. Students are provided opportunities of intensive academic instruction and enrichment, arts and music activities, science activities...
New Center School	Sevierville	Nancy Sims	2004	$90,000	Club Success is a two-phase program: Phase I, an after-school program with tutoring, accelerated computer club, and advanced art and choir; and Phase II, a summer school program for remediation of academic skills.
New Life Holiness Church	Memphis	Jerri Smith	2004	$50,000	The New Life Holiness 21stCCLC Program is designed to provide a safe, drug-free environment with scheduled activities during non-school hours for adolescents in the 38117 zip code area.
Oak Ridge City Schools	Oak Ridge	Joyce Morris	2004	$90,000	The 21st Century Community Learning Centers grant has allowed Willow Brook Elementary School to expand and establish community learning centers that provide students K-4 opportunities for academic enrichment, youth development and family support.
Overton County Schools	Livingston	Mr. Mike Gilpatrick	2002	$66,000	LMS Afterschool serves as homework help, mentoring service, tutoring, and extended academic and recreational activities for the children of our school.
Overton County Schools	Livingston	Mr. Michael Gilpatrick	2003	$50,000	This project will focus on improving and enhancing the physical, social, and academic needs and abilities of the children in the Hilham area. The major focus will be concerned with improving students academic abilities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Polk County Schools	Ducktown	Brenda Green	2002	$250,000	Our after-school and summer program consists of three sites with four schools attending these sites. Our after-school program runs four days a week and offers both tutorial and enrichment activities.
Project Reflect, Nashville	Nashville	Ms. Janelle Glover	2002	$120,000	Project Reflect provides an after school program at the Smithson Craighead facility on a Monday through Thursday basis, from the hours of 3:30-6:30pm.
Putnam County Schools	Cookeville	Ms. Fay Borden	2002	$120,000	Putnam County has implemented two 21st Century Learning Centers in Monterey, TN, one at Uffelman Elementary and one at Burks' Middle. These centers serve approximately 500 students and 92 adults.
Rogersville Middle School	Rogersville	Christy Mowl	2004	$75,000	The program has had a very positive impact on students, families, parents and the community. Rev It Up! Program has provided the participating students with a safe place to be involved in meaningful activities after school.
Rutherford County Schools	Murfreesboro	Anne McCraw	2004	$60,000	We plan to provide a summer transition prgram between Central Middle School and Oakland High School for 75 at-risk students. These students will work with teachers from both schools on math, reading and science.
Sequatchie County Schools - Tri-County	Dunlap	Rhonda Harmon	2004	$540,000	Tri-County Connections Learning Centers offer students expanded learning opportunities to help them overcome factors that put them at risk of academic failure.
Shelby County Schools	Memphis	Mr. Trent McVay	2003	$150,000	Project GOLD is a structured after school program for middle school students which includes academic, exploratory, and recreational activities.
St. Andrew AME Church	Memphis	Sharron Moore-Edw	2004	$75,000	The Trimasters'program is a after-school academic enrichment program for youth residing in South Memphis.
Sumner County Schools	Gallatin	Ms. Marijo Lewis	2003	$175,000
Sumner County Schools	Gallatin	Marijo Lewis	2004	$240,000	The mission of the Sumner County school system is to provide all students a safe environment in which they are given challenging learning opportunities that will foster responsibility and help students grow into productive and respectful citizens. UNITY.
Tipton County Schools	Covington	Ms. Lisa Wiley	2003	$250,000	Project Cope is an extended learning program designed to provide learning opportunities after-school, during summers and on the weekends for Tipton County Students and their families.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Tennessee

Urban League of Greater Chattanooga	Chattanooga	Mr. Warren Logan J	2002	$150,000	After school academic and enrichment program in Chattanooga's urban elementary schools.
Urban League of Greater Chattanooga	Chattanooga	Mr. Warren Logan,	2003	$75,000	After and before school academic and enrichment programs for grades 3-5 at Title 1 schools.
Urban League of Greater Chattanooga	Chattanooga	Warren Logan, Jr.	2004	$50,000	The Urbvan League 21st Century Community Learning Centers project is in operation in four schools. The program objectives are to bolster student acheivement and expand student horizons by offering a variety of enrichment activities.
Wayne County Schools	Waynesboro	Terry Hampton	2004	$200,000	The mission of the Virtual Learning: Learning is a Community Affair Project/Project Challenge is to improve, enhance and advance student achievement of 21st Century literacy skills by providing additional resources and extended learning opporunities.
Webb Alumni Association	McKenzie	Sheila Williams	2004	$90,000	The Project FREE will provide a creative, secure community learning center that serves low-income children and families with age appropriate recreation, education and entrepreneurial activities.
White County Schools	Sparta	Karen Benningfield	2004	$200,000	White County has established 21st Century Community Learning Centers at three sites during the 2004-05 school year. The centers provide students with opportunities for academic enrichment, remedial education, recreation, counseling, and family support.
Youth Visions, Inc.	Memphis	Sonja Currie	2004	$80,000	Youth Visions is a faith-based children and youth development center that provides a safe place for children and youth to come and grow spiritually, academically, physically and emotionally.