

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Utah

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Boys and Girls Club of Utah County	Provo	Katia Swenson	2005	$122,000	Working with two elementary schools and the local community to improve academic status. This will be located at the Club and students will be bused to and from the center.
City Academy	Salt Lake City	Sonia Woodbury	2005	$160,000	This is located at a Charter School in collaboration with a local high school. The program will serve both schools in academic enrichment and other activities.
Davis School District - 10/04	Farmington	Ginger Rhode	2004	$290,500	Davis After School Learning Program provides reading and math enrichment, tutoring and homework help as well as snacks and recreation opportunities in 10 of the Title I elementary schools in the district. It will serve more than 1500 students.
Grand County School District	Moab	Ron D. Ferguson	2005	$190,000	This grant is in collaboration with the adult education program and the school district. They will be providing academic enrichment to both students and families.
Granite School District - 10/04	Salt Lake City	Barbara Meyer	2004	$276,445	The mission of Granite School District's CCLC program is to increase educational and social benefits and affect positive behavioral changes in students and their families.
Logan City School District - 10/04	Logan	Dan Johnson	2004	$405,840	The Logan City School District 21st CCLC Programs provide after school, summer school, and lifelong learning programs in partnership with Logan City Parks & Recreation, Cache County 4-H, Boys & Girls Club of Cache County, and Utah State University.
Midvale Connections - 2/04	Midvale	Anthony Godfrey	2004	$117,411	The project provides tutoring, summer school, and after-school services for middle school students. In addition, the program provides mentoring through Big Brothers Big Sisters and Adult English classes.
North Davis Junior High School - 2/03	Clearfield	Kim Augustin	2003	$214,024	The overall structure for Program CARE is academic, enrichment and remediation activities, life skills and recreation activities provided in after school sessions. Adult and Community opportunities begin at 6:00 to 8:00 PM.
Ogden City School District - 10/04	Ogden	Marsha Prantil	2004	$294,060	Project Central's vision is working together to raise the learning level for all students and families. Project Central's goal is to increase successful school and life outcomes for students, teachers and families.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Utah

Ogden City School District - 2/03	Ogden	Marsha Prantil	2003	$190,083	Dee Elementary and Lewis Elementary are the two sites for the 21st Century Community Learning Centers. The CCLC Program goal is to increase school and life outcomes for the students.
Provo City School District - 2/03	Provo	Christine Forstner	2003	$288,119	Two urban middle schools, Dixon and Farrer, in Provo City School District have formed partnerships with local community agencies, universities and organizations to establish ACT 21st Century Community Learning Centers.
Provo City School District - 2/04	Provo	Christine Forstner	2004	$336,520	A consortium of three low income, urban elementary schools, Provost, Spring Creek and Timpanogos, in Provo School District, have formed partnerships with local agencies, universities and organizations to establish three 21st Century Community learning Centers.
Salt Lake City School District - 10/04	Salt Lake City	Mary Hancey	2004	$512,948	Learning Plus UNITE promotes collaboration between SLCSD school improvement and University of Utah outreach initiatives to develop more systematic pathways for connecting resources to support student success, PreK-16.
Salt Lake City School District - 2/03	Salt Lake City	Mary Hancey	2003	$550,000	Learning Plus (LP) is part of an expanded approach to school improvement that integrates out-of-school programs and community resources to support academic achievement, healthy youth development and family success.
Salt Lake City School District - 2/04	Salt Lake City	Mary Hancey	2004	$393,549	Learning Plus (LP) is part of an expanded approach to school improvement that integrates out-of-school programs and community resources to support academic achievement, healthy youth development and family success.
Sharon Elementary School - 2/03	Orem	Linda Anderson	2003	$250,000	We provide a safe place for students as they participate in worthwhile enrichment activities and receive academic instruction extended beyond the regular school day.
Uintah School District - 10/04	Vernal	Mistalyn Leis	2004	$224,480	After school services for students with high academic needs.
Uintah School District - 2/04	Vernal	Mistalyn Leis	2004	$213,973	After school programs based in middle and elementary schools provide academic assistance and enrichment activities to students. There is also a focus on community outreach with some classes and other services being provided to adult members.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Utah

Weber School District - 2/04	Ogden	Camille Alexander	2004	$110,134	Club Heights Elementary is using CCLC monies to provide after school and adult education opportunities. We have increased the size and duration of our after school program to serve 45 - 50 students 5 days per week from 25 students and 4 days per week last year.
------------------------------	-------	-------------------	------	-----------	---