Among surveyed registered voters who identified as Latino, Latina, or Hispanic, the support for afterschool programs is overwhelming:1

What do Latino Voters Say about Afterschool Programs?

- 91%
  - Afterschool and summer programs are an absolute necessity

- 84%
  - Federal, state, and local leaders should provide more funding for afterschool programs

Why do Latino Voters Support Afterschool Programs?

Latino voters agree that afterschool programs are:

- 89%
  - Supporting young people’s social and emotional well-being by helping them develop confidence, communicate, and build connections with others, and work in a team

- 83%
  - Inspiring children to learn by giving them engaging hands-on and fun projects, opportunities to express themselves creatively, and connecting them with caring adults

- 80%
  - Providing parents peace of mind knowing that their children are safe and supervised

What do Latino Voters Want for Afterschool Programs?

- 80%
  - Local governments should invest some COVID-relief funds into afterschool and summer programs

- 88%
  - Schools should invest some COVID-relief funds into partnerships with community organizations to expand access to afterschool and summer programs

---

1 The online survey was conducted by Lake Research Partners between November 9-14, 2022, reaching 1,400 registered voters, including 215 registered voters who identified as Latino, Latina, or Hispanic.